

ABOUT WHEATONARTS

WheatonArts is a national cultural treasure. Located on 65 wooded acres in southern New Jersey, WheatonArts is home to the Museum of American Glass, the Creative Glass Center of America International Fellowship Program, the largest Folklife Center in the Garden State, a hot glass studio, several traditional craft studios, four museum stores, a 13,000 sq. ft. Event Center and a beautiful pond-side picnic grove - a true Pineland sanctuary!

WheatonArts offers an extraordinary level of personal interaction with professional artists in a warm and inviting environment. In addition to daily glass blowing and craft demonstrations, WheatonArts features special exhibitions, programs, workshops, performances and several weekend festivals throughout the year, culminating with the Festival of Fine Craft. For more information, go to our web site: www.wheatonarts.org.

Accessibility Services: WheatonArts strives to ensure the accessibility of its exhibits, events and programs to all persons with disabilities. Participants needing assistance should contact WheatonArts as far in advance as possible, and no later than three weeks prior to the Festival. Patrons with hearing and speech disabilities may contact WheatonArts through the New Jersey Relay Service (TRS) 800-852-7899 or by dialing 711. FESTIVAL OF FINE CRAFT

Saturday & Sunday, October 3 & 4, 2009

10am to 5pm

WheatonArts is an internationally acclaimed arts community dedicated to nurturing the creative spirit in us all. The Festival of Fine Craft, now in its eleventh year, is our premier annual event.

Approximately 150 artists and craftsmen who exemplify the finest in American craftsmanship are carefully selected each year for the festival, one of the most highly rated shows in the Mid-Atlantic region. The event was named one of the "Top 100 Events in North America 2008" by the American Bus Association and was listed as one of the 2007 season's "Must-See Fairs" by American Style Magazine.

The festival is entirely produced by WheatonArts professionals, including experienced staff artists. We take pride in maintaining an artist-friendly show with a high standard of quality and are continually working toward a balance of mediums and styles.

We invest all exhibitor fees toward the promotion and production of the festival. Our comprehensive marketing plan includes extensive print and electronic media campaigns, full color promotional materials, and year long promotions through our other events and outreach programs.

Exhibiting artists may choose from locations inside the WheatonArts Event Center, under a large tent or outdoors on the extensive picturesque grounds.

WheatonArts provides convenient set up and breakdown, overnight security, booth sitters and unequalled hospitality throughout the show.

Lodging at reduced rates is offered to exhibitors at the Country Inn adjacent to the show grounds, and at other nearby hotels.

Open studios, craft demonstrations and a variety of interactive children's activities add to the excitement, making the festival both educational and entertaining.

RULES FOR ENTRY

The Festival of Fine Craft is open to artists working in all mediums who design and produce their own work. Exhibiting artists must be present and may only show work typified by medium submitted to jury. No commercially mass produced items will be accepted.
