RESERVATION PROCEDURES

One supervising adult is required for every ten (10) students and is admitted at no charge. Additional supervising adults will be charged $10.00 each. Supervising adults must accompany students at all times.

At WheatonArts, we value the creative process, and the many ways in which engagement with the arts introduces learning skills and strengthens basic classroom curriculum goals.

Enhance your students' experience with a special, hands-on activity. Choose from a variety of workshops including ceramics, bead-making, watercolor painting and more! All grades can tour the internationally known Museum of American Glass where they will discover the science, industry, art and magic of glass-making from colonial times to the present.

Admission (January, February and March)

Free admission to the Museum Stores. The Museum of American Glass and the Artist Studios are closed during these three months only.

Admission (April through December)

$6.00 per student Minimum ten (10) students

Optional Programs must be requested at time of reservation.
